MR RAPBANT BELIEVOS Methods of Campalan

I am indebted to some thoughtful correspondent for a copy of a curious publication entitled the West Newington Conservative, which is engaged in the arduous under taking of recommending Mr Riphael Belilios as a fit and proper person to reprecent West Newington in Parliment. Having come all the way from Hongkong the worthy candidate naturally throws himself into the fray with the utmost zert, and I observe that one of his speeches as reported in this friendly organ, ended with these inspiring words :- Buck up everyone, and help me, and see if we canno wir. Mr Raphael Belilios has, I understand, the priceless advantage of youth, and herallies his friends in a charmingly unconventional

His free and easy oratorical methods ere not denied by his friends, for I observe that in another report the West Newington Conservative remarks that anything in the nature of a set speech was impossible, through the bad behavior of Radicals present, and Mr Belilios had. to interject a number of colloquidisms whenever he got a chance. One who has heard Mr Belilios assums me that his favorite colloquialisms are. 'Wha tho devil ? and Blow me tight romarks which ought to convince the most stubborn opponent. It would not be fair to suggest that the only encouragement ... offered to the faithfol is an ardent invitation to buck up. They had a smoking concert the othernight in support of the cause, and I notice that one of the singers gave in an amusing style the song. 'Nothing at all to pay.' I am not acquainted with the song, but if it has a chorus I: can imagine the Conservatives in West Newington joining in the chorus with wholehearted rapture. Those words, Nothing at all to pay describe theideal tatate of things among the Conservative workers in many a London constituency just at present. These gentlemen take no interest in the prospects of the millenniumthey are quite content with things as they are, and no wonder. They are the real free-fooders, and free everything-elsers. All over London, night after night pewter and glass being drained. and truly Imperial pints are being lowered, and night after night, as the stalwarts separate, full of their subject, the cheerful refrain is still 'nothing at all to pay.' Why should these gentlemen want a general pleation? Such an event would stop the fun, and so I am not surprised to hear that at a smoking concert in the North of London recently tremendous enthusiasm was evoked by the following verse, given aswhat is called an * oncore ':

May these concerts be kept up for many Just in the old sweet way.

May the Government sit most Impedally Just in the old sweet way.

Commenting on Mr Ward's first organ recital in Shanghai 'Dotted Quaver' in the N. C. Daily News says :- 'Mr Ward's play ing cannot fail to appeal to all lovers of good music. The fatal fault, common to so many organists, of a certain blurred manuer in playing fugal music, is conspicuous b its absence in Mr Ward. The organ, which has lately been giving trouble with the reeds, was in its best condition; and the programme was not too long. We missed the great name of Henry Smart, that prince of writers for the organ; but in a short programme it is of course impossible to draw upon many componers. We hope that Mr Ward will soon favour us with another recital, and that his next programme will be equally intoresting and eclectic.

The Post Office.

The annual report on the Post Office for the year 1904 is published in the Government Gazette. According to it the profits derived from this institution amount to $91,702.36 on the years working being $1000 odd better than the previous year. $408,458.92, a decrease of $6,408.28 on 1903. It is explained that this is due to the fact that stamps for General Revenue purposes are now sold exclusively by the Post Office. Expenditure declined by $17,420.84, totalling $316,756.68. decrease was a general one, all items except working expenses showing a diminution and the increase in working expenses was under $6000. The mails handled by the Post Office increased heavily during purports to come from an official source. the year for arrivals in Hongkong were 9864 bags, 288 packets and 61 loose letterboxes more than in 1903, while departures increased by 12661 bags and 1364 packets. Registered articles were also higher than heretofore being 68,498 articles and parcels more than in 1903; the total average was 1914 per working day. Fairplay publishes the following mmarkable particulars extracted from the log of the iron sailing-ship "Brychilds," 1,502 tona gross register, built in 1885, and owned by Mesers, J. W. Carmichael and Co., Now Glasgow, Nova Scotia, in consection with her passage from Buenos Ayres to Adelaids Semaphore, a distance of 9071 miles. The ship sailed from Chico Bank Lightship at 4 s.m. on 15th January this year; passed the Cape of Good Hope on 31st January; strived at the Semaphore at 11 p.m. on 22nd February-difference in time 18 hours, actual time 38 days 6 hours. It will be seen that the ship made an average of 237 miles per day. It is said that she bent some steamers between the Plate and the Cape.

A Tokio telegram to the N.-O. Daily News States:-The British ereamer "Sobratense," 1,232 tons net, chartered by the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, with 1,500 piculs of beancaks and twenty-two passengers from Newchyang, was sunk outright by a mine May 12, eight miles Port Arthur. A salvage belonging to the Port Arthur Admiralty escued sixty-three of those on board; including a few dead. The Naval Department has issued another waming that the utmost care should be taken to prevent a repecition of this disaster. Five in crew of the "Subralense," and Japanese and two Chingse passengers, are missing. All the Europeans were saved,

The Hamburg-America liner "Amerika" (22,50) tons), the heaviest vessel in the world, was launched at Queen's Island recently, by Messrs Harland, Wolff, and Co. beam of 74 feet, and a depth of 52 feet. while her height to the boat deck is 77 feet. Accommodation is provided for 300 passengers and a crow of 530. She is intended for the Hamburg and New York service, calling at Dover and Cherbourg, and is expected to take up her sailings in Sentember. She will have a speed of 20 knots. Mr W. H. Long (Chief Secretary). Sir Edward Carson (Solicitor General), and several English and Irish members of Parliament were amongst those present. Almost immediately after the vessel was launched, preparations were commenced mammoth liner.

FLOATING MINES.

The following letter, signed 'Voyager appeared in the N. C. Daily News on M. *It is obvious that the mercanti marine service of North China-eventually of South China also - is thrown upon its own resources to destroy the mines that are promiscuously floating about the Yellow | Sea and farther. It is therefore difficult to junk-should be content to report the mines without making an effort to destroy are supplied to the ship for the destruction of the infernal machines, but there must be a shape-facedness with such a plea after the splendid examples of many coasting steamers in doing their best for the general security, and if owners of vessels are to blind to their own interests to refuse supply the guns and ammunition, they are greatly to be blamed and should be held up for opprobrium. Another question of equal importance is What are the I. M. Customs croisers doing in idle waters whereas they could be use fully employed in searching and exploding the mines? The perils have increased now the foggy season has set in and this makes the case more urgent. The torpedo-boat of four funnels at Taku-supposed to have rather those in command of her, are a sensitive of its value that the merchan coaster is signalled to 'go slow when pass ing her in the river. It must be concede that the Chineso Government carries ou the principle of the signal to its fullest tion to all perilously concerned.

application and causes the greatest irrita-'It is now ascertained to a certainty that 999 'tipping' mine will sink with a Lie mine will go off with any projectile that strikes the easily snapped glass tube. There is no excuse for any not to do their whether merchantman or cruiser.'
